Peace in the Valley

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk .

D E7
A7
D
G Gm
D
G
D E7
A7
E7

A7
D D7
G
E7
D E7
A7
1
D
G
Gm
D
4
D
G Gm
D

I am
tir−ed and wea−ry, but flow’rs will be bloom−ing, the bear will be gen−tle, the head−aches or heart−aches of I must toil on tell the Lord comes to grass will be green, and the skies will be wolf will be tame, and the lion will lay mis−un−der−stands. No con−fu−sion or call me a−way,__ where the clear and se−rene.__ The_ down by the lamb.__ The_ trou−ble won’t be.__ No_ morn−ing is bright and the Lamb is the sun ev−er shines, giv−ing one end−less host from the wild will be led by a frowns to de−file, just a big end−less light and the night is as fair as the beam, and no clouds there will ev−er be Child; I’ll be changed from the crea−ture I smile. There’ll be peace and con−tent−ment for day.___
seen.___
am.___
me.___
There’ll be peace in the val−ley for me some−day. There’ll be peace in the val−ley for me. I pray no more sor−row and sad−ness or trou−ble will be. There’ll be peace_ in the val−ley for me.___ There the
me.___ There the me.___ No_
me.___