Mother

Recorded by Hank Snow

A E7
There are friends who will want you but just for a day
A
There are pals you think true that will cast you away
A7 D
There's one loving soul boys I'd sure recommend
A E7 A
Through this whole world of sorrow, she'll be true to the end.

E7
Mother, though her hands are all wrinkled and old
A
Mother, silver hair that has lost all it's gold.
D
You left her alone, went to learn through the years
B7 E7
But all that you left her were heartaches and tears
A D
So kiss her old brow, whisper softly and true
Dm E7 A
Mother, you're just an angel and I love you.

Visit www.traditionalmusic.co.uk for more songs.