From: Keith Reding Recorded by Keith Urban written by Charlotte Caffrey and Jane Wiedlin (formely of the Go-Gos), transcribed for Cowpie by Keith Reding

But For the Grace of God

Intro (each | one measure of 4/4 |
Dm | Dm | C | C | Dm | F | C | C |

Verse 1
```
C                                  Dm
I can hear the neighbors, the're arguing again
F
there hasn't been peace on our street since
C who knows when
C                                    Dm
I don't mean to listen in but the shouting is so loud
F                       C
I turn up the radio to drown it out

Dm              Em7   F               G
and silently I say a little prayer
```

Chorus
```
            Dm
but for the grace of God go I
               C
I must of been born a lucky guy
            Dm                   F
heaven only knows how I've been blessed
                        C
with the gift of your love
       Dm
I look around and all I see
        C
is your happiness embracing me
               Dm
oh lord I'd be lost
F                     C
but for the grace of God
```

Verse 2
```
C
I can see that old man
     Dm
he's walking past our door
F
I've been told that he's rich
       C
but he seems so poor
C
```

'cause no one comes to call on him
        Dm
and his phone it never rings
F
he wonders through his empty home
C
surrounded by his things

Dm   Em7   F   G
and silently I say a little prayer (yes I do)

Repeat Chorus

Repeat Intro

       Dm
I look around and all I see
        C
is your happiness embracing me
                Dm
oh lord I'd be lost
F   C
but for the grace of God

                Dm
oh lord I'd be lost
F   C
but for the grace of God

Repeat Intro (ad lib lyrics)

Visit www.traditionalmusic.co.uk for more songs.