```
B7 E6                      Fdim(III)
Ya see a pair of laughing eyes,

    F#m7                      B7
And suddenly you're sighing sighs.

       E7/9
You're thinkin' nothin's wrong,

    A             Am7       C#7   F#7
You string along, boy, then SNAP!

Fdim(III) A    C#7    Am7
  Those  eyes, those sighs,

Fdim(III) A           Am7  Cdim   E
 They're  part of the ten - der trap.

B7      E6                      Fdim(III)
You're hand in hand beneath the trees,

    F#m7                          B7
And soon there's music in the breeze.

       E7/9
You're actin' kind of smug

   A             Am7       C#7   F#7
Until your heart just goes WHAP!

Fdim(III) A    C#7    Am7
 Those  trees, that  breeze,

Fdim(III)  A   Am7    B7   Cdim   E
 They're  part of the ten - der trap.

Bridge:

E    E7      A              Am7/6  Cdim     C#m
Some starry night, when her kisses make you tingle,

C#7              A               Am7/6    Cdim    C#7   F#7 Cdim  B7
She'll hold you tight and you'll hate yourself for be - ing sin - gle.

B7   E6                     Fdim(III)
And all at once it seems so nice,

    F#m7                          B7
The folks are throwin' shoes and rice.

     E7/9                  A          Am7    C#7   F#7

You hurry to a spot that's just a dot on the map.

   Fdim(III) A            C#7       Am7
You wonder how,  but it's too  late now

Fdim(III) A       Am7      B7        Cdim    B7   E
  You    fell in love and love is the ten - der trap.
