Salty Dog
Album: Back In Town

I got a gal, she's ten feet tall,
sleeps in the kitchen with her feet in the hall
Honey, let me be your salty dog.
There was two old ladies sittin'
in the sand, each one wishin' the other was a man
Honey, let me be your salty dog.
Chorus:
If I can't be your salty dog,
I won't be your man at all
Honey, let me be your salty dog.
I smile when you go into town
Now I'm sorry that your car broke down
Honey, let me be your salty dog.
You told me that your wheel was broke
Now I'm sittin' with a broken spoke
Honey, let me be your salty dog.
(Chorus)
I love you in blue and I love you in red but most of all
I love you in blue
Honey, let me be your salty dog.
Floatin' down the river on an old oak log
What the hell's a salty dog? Honey,
let me be your salty dog.
(Chorus)
I think we better call this the end of this song 'cause it's a-getting' too damn long
Honey, let me be your salty dog.
Honey, let me be your salty, honey,
let me be your salty, honey, let me be your salty dog.
