Are we walking daily walking

Are we walking, daily walking,
as the children of the light;
Casting off the works of darkness
and in the shadows of the night?
Have we left them for the sunshine
freely streaming from above,
For the clear and blessed sunshine
of the Saviour's wondrous love?

Are we walking in His sight
as the children of the light?
In the precious blood of Jesus
have we made our garments white?
Are we marching on to glory
as the children of the light?

Are we walking, humbly walking
as the children of the light,
In a world of pain and sorrow,
where the powers of sin unite?
Are we seeking souls that wander
in the dark and downward way;
Do we win them to the radiance,
of the everlasting day.

Are we walking in His sight
as the children of the light?
In the precious blood of Jesus
have we made our garments white?
Are we marching on to glory
as the children of the light?

Let our songs ring out in gladness
as the children of light,
Let the joy of His salvation make our hearts and faces bright;
Then, oh, then, will sinners listen to the message that we bring,
And with us will follow Jesus
to the city of the King.

Are we walking in His sight
as the children of the light?
In the precious blood of Jesus
have we made our garments white?
Are we marching on to glory
as the children of the light?
