March on march on Sing joyfully

Refrain.
March on, march on! Sing joyfully,
While the world, into life awakening,
Hails the bright, bright ray
of the glad Easter Day,
O'er the hills in beauty breaking!

March on, march on! Sing joyfully,
While the world, into life awakening,
Hails the bright, bright ray
of the glad Easter Day,
O'er the hills in beauty breaking!

March on, while in praise every heart we raise To Him, our King all glorious,
For He lives on high no more to die,
And shall reign o'er the earth victorious!

March on, march on! Sing joyfully,
While the world, into life awakening,
Hails the bright, bright ray
of the glad Easter Day,
O'er the hills in beauty breaking!

March on, and proclaim our Redeemer's name,
Who rent the grave asunder,
And the angel eyes that saw Him rise,
How they gazed on the scene with wonder!

March on, march on! Sing joyfully,
While the world, into life awakening,
Hails the bright, bright ray
of the glad Easter Day,
O'er the hills in beauty breaking!

March on, and rejoice with a tuneful voice,
Ring out a grateful chorus;
To His courts away, oh, haste today,
Where the Saviour has gone before us!

March on, march on! Sing joyfully,
While the world, into life awakening,
Hails the bright, bright ray
of the glad Easter Day,
O'er the hills in beauty breaking!
