My Saviour O what glories shine

My Saviour, oh, what glories shine
Through all Thy life of love Divine!
What wondrous grace and sympathy:
All this for me!
All this for me!

O blessed Saviour, may I be
A living sacrifice to Thee;
Both now and in eternity;
Yes, all for Thee!
Yes, all for Thee!

Thy vigils 'neath the lowly shade,
Despised, rejected, scorned, betrayed;
Thy sorrow in Gethsemane:
All this for me!
All this for me!

O blessed Saviour, may I be
A living sacrifice to Thee;
Both now and in eternity;
Yes, all for Thee!
Yes, all for Thee!

The thorns that pierced
Thy sacred brow,
The blood that saves so fully now;
Oh, wondrous Cross of Calvary!
All this for me!
All this for me!

O blessed Saviour, may I be
A living sacrifice to Thee;
Both now and in eternity;
Yes, all for Thee!
Yes, all for Thee!

The riches of Thy peace and love,
The treasures of Thy home above;
Grace everlasting, full and free:
All this for me!
All this for me!

O blessed Saviour, may I be
A living sacrifice to Thee;
Both now and in eternity;
Yes, all for Thee!
Yes, all for Thee!
