Twa and Twa

Twa and Twa

Twa and twa made the bed,
Twa and twa lay thegither
When the bed begun to heat
One got up abune the ither.

(Second section diddled: nonsense syllables)

From Travellers' Songs, MacColl & Seeger Collected from Jeannie Thompson
note: "Scattered like exclamation points throughout the Scots traditional repertoire are innumerable short pieces frequently set to pipe and fiddle tunes, and often consisting of a single stanza. MacC & S

apr96