Dar am Honey on dese Lips
Copyright, 1878, by K. H. Harding.

Come and kiss me, Linda, kiss me,
I'se a waitin' for you here,
For I know dat you would miss me,
If dis darkey was not near.
Long I'se lov'd you, Linda, lov'd you,
As de bee de flower it sips.
And as true as de stars above you,
Dar am honey on dese lips.

Chorus.
Long I'se lov'd you, Linda, lov'd you,
As de bee de nower it sips.
And as true as stars above you,
Dar am honey on dese lips.

Come and nestle close beside me,
So I loves you all de more,
For I knows you will confide me
Something nebber told before.
While you're lookin' from de winda,
Think how soon de ebening slips,
And believe me, darling Linda,
Dar am honey on dese lips. - Chorus.

Come and whisper words of pleasure,
Tell me if your heart am true,
For you am my dearest treasure,
And, my love, I love but you;
Now, as in de past I feel it.
From my toes to finger tips,
And I wish you'd let me seal it
Wid de honey on dese lips.-Chorus.
