Word and Music by James K. Stewart.

Only to see her face again.
Only to hear her speak;
Only to see her smile once more,
Only to hear her speak.
She was as fair as a sunny flower,
Full of beauty and of grace;
One little wish is all I ask,
Only to see her face.

Chorus.
Only to see her face again,
Full of beauty And of grace;
One little wish is all I ask,
Only to see her face.

Only to see her face again,
Fair as the stars above;
Only to hear her one little word,
Only one word of love.
Sad was the night when we parted
Down by the old trysting place;
One little word is all I ask.
Only to see her face.-Chorus.
