Old Bangum

Child Ballad 18

```
G                    D7
Old Bangum, will you hunt and ride ?
G           D7
Dillum down dillum.
   G                D7
Old Bangum, will you hunt and ride?
G     D7
Dillum down.
```

Old Bangum, will you hunt and ride,

```
C                D7
Sword and pistol by your side ?
G       C          D7      G
Cubikee, cuddledum, kili quo quam.
```

There is a wild boar in these woods,
Dillum down dillum.
There is a wild boar in these woods,
Dillum down.
There is a wild boar in these woods,
Eats men's bones and drink their blood.
Cubikee, cuddledum, kili quo quam.

Old Bangum drew his wooden knife, etc.
And swore he'd take the wild boar's life, etc.

Old Bangum went to the wild boar's den, etc.
And fought the bones of a thousand men, etc.

They fought four hours in that day, etc.
The wild boar fled and slunk away, etc.

Old Bangum, did you win or lose?, etc.
He swore, by Jove, he'd won his shoes, etc.
